

Lap-Band Details

Lap-Band Details

To get started with the Lap Band Surgery Process, an individual will have a complete consultation with a lap band specialist and discuss how lap band surgery will help them to decrease their weight.

Once given approval for lap band surgery, a patient will be placed under general anesthesia and likely spend less than an hour in the hospital for the Lap Band Surgery Process.